Art Of The Day: Rocky Horror Picture Show

JANUARY 10, 2013 7:42 AM BY EDITORS

Is this an Addams Family Halloween party? Is Sesame Street's Snuffleupagus, hiding there in the corner, trying on a new shade of hot pink? Or is this all just a (more) twisted version of The Rocky Horror Picture Show? In Shine Shivan's new solo "Glimpse of Thirst" at Gallery Maskara, all kinds of things have been dragged in and thrown together: hairballs, fur, mango seeds, foilage, jute, skeletons, eyeballs, more than a few dentures, not to mention icky hair-covered appendages that are shockingly not the most repulsive objects to be found. Much of this material isn't new to Shivan, who has incorporated dentures and feathers and stuffed things in shows past. Affixed here, however, to elaborate hand-stitched jackets and sequined corsets, they are not a little unsettling and most definitely not suitable for kids.
