Art from discarded objects

Visit Gallery Maskara, Colaba for a look at artist Prashant Pandey's second solo show.

Titled Shelf Life II, it takes on a theme similar to his maiden exhibit — showing everyday life using discarded objects and by-products of human activity.

Pandey has used recycled and reclaimed material like sweet lime bagasse, marble blast-stones and chunks of road tar to create this new body of work. This encourages viewers to question the meaning of shelf life, by using material that has been labelled outdated or used.

The show, curated by Abhay Maskara, is on display till November 8. The gallery is open from Tuesday to Saturday every week. Call 2202 3056 for more details.
